

STELLWAGEN REVEALED: SANCTUARY 20TH ANNIVERSARY EVENTS

Friday, July 20, 2012

Exhibit of Winners from the 2012 Marine Art Contest –
Amazing Ocean Creatures of Stellwagen Bank
National Marine Sanctuary

Contest sponsored by Massachusetts Marine Educators, the sanctuary, NE Aquarium, Provincetown Center for Coastal Studies, and Whale & Dolphin Conservation Society.
Enjoy the exhibit; then draw your favorite sanctuary species and make a stick puppet or animal mask.
Firehouse, Woods Hole Community Hall; 10:00am-5:00pm

Saturday, July 21, 2012

Exhibit of Winners from the 2012 Marine Art Contest
(see July 20). Firehouse, WH Community Hall,
10:00am-5:00pm

Tours of the Research Vessel Auk
at NOAA Fisheries Dock, 10:00am-3:30pm

A Child's Sanctuary – hands-on activities and games for children (ages 4-12). Discover how large a whale is; see how blubber keeps a whale warm; find out how different animals eat. Learn about sanctuary animals, shipwrecks and other ocean resources.

MBL Club, 10:00am-12:00noon
and 1:00pm-3:00pm

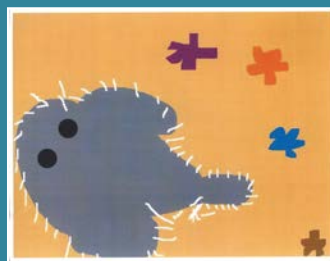

Stellwagen Marine Creature Photo Op

Dress up as a sanctuary species or bring your stick puppet or mask to be photographed for our anniversary photo album. MBL Club, 12:00pm and 3:00pm

FOR KIDS

All programs are free and handicapped accessible (except R/V Auk – separate dockside exhibit available)

Artwork (top to bottom):
2012 Marine Art Contest—
Computer Graphics Division.
Crab by Talia D., grade 2,
West Elem. School, Plymouth; Goosefish by Skyler W.,
grade 2, Federal Furnace Elem.
School, Plymouth;
Sea Gooseberry by Conor G.,
grade 2, Federal Furnace Elem.
School, Plymouth.
Squid by Wade B., grade 2,
Federal Furnace Elem. School, Plymouth.

View all of the 2012 winning artwork at

http://stellwagen.noaa.gov/pgallery/contest2012.html

SANCTUARY KIDS CALENDAR - July 20-21